

Who are we and what do we do.

Have Voices Will Travel is an upbeat, a cappella quartet that has been performing together for four years (individually for over 50). We are members of the Sounds of Concord Barbershop Chorus.

We sing primarily in the barbershop style, an American-original form with close four-part harmony that delivers a rich, melodic blend.

Singing in the rain at The ARC in Concord.

We perform 'on stage' in front of audiences, stroll about or do both (our only instrument is a pitch pipe). We have our own sound system.

Audiences actively participate with attention-grabbing sing-along numbers. Humorous stories keep the mood upbeat and light.

Past Performances.

In addition to corporate and personal events (birthdays, anniversaries etc.), we have performed during the last year for: Brandeis National Women, Harvard University Dermatology Conference, Bedford Senior Center, Billerica's Annual Senior Dinner, Marist Nursing Home in Waltham, East End House in Cambridge, Emeritus at Wilson Mountain in Dedham, Epoch Retirement Home in Newton, Deaconess Hospital in Needham, Meadowgreen Nursing in Waltham, Hebrew Senior Life in Roslindale, The Falls at Cordingly Dam in Wellesley
